

ALTGELD IS CHOSEN BY THE DEMOCRATS

ILLINOIS CHIEF EXECUTIVE IS RENOMINATED.

And So as to Make Their Folly Complete They Adopt a Sixteen-To-One Platform—The Balance of the Ticket That Was Selected Yesterday.

For Governor, John P. Altgeld.
For Lieutenant-Governor, Monroe C. Crawford.
For Secretary of State, Finis E. Downing.
For Auditor of Public Accounts, W. F. Beck.
For State Treasurer, Edward C. Page.
For Attorney-General, George A. Trude.
For University Trustees, Julia Holmes Smith, R. P. Morgan, M. W. Graham.
For Delegates-at-Large, John P. Altgeld, George W. Fithian, S. P. McConnell, W. H. Hinrichsen.
For Electors-at-Large, Thomas Cary, F. W. Youngblood.
For National Committeeman, Thomas Gahan.

Peoria, Ill., June 24.—In just five hours and two minutes of working time the democratic state convention Tuesday nominated a full state ticket, adopted a free-silver platform, elected forty-eight free-silver delegates, tied them to the white metal by the unit rule, listened to much praise of free silver and did all the other business incidental to a state convention. There were no bolts and few protests. All the nominations were made by acclamation, only two roll-calls being taken.

Gov. Altgeld made a speech before he had been nominated, and asked the convention not to nominate him. Three times did he plead with his delegates to release him, and three times did they shout "No."

When Chairman Hinrichsen called the convention to order at 12:18 o'clock, the short prayer by the Rev. M. V. McVety was applauded, and then the preliminary work leading up to the temporary organization was hurried over and Temporary Chairman Alexander H. Bell of Macoupin county made his speech. Of the St. Louis convention he said:

"The republican national convention last week, dominated by the northeastern section of the union, declared for a single gold standard. In my mind's eye I can see the conspirators at their work. There are Platt and Quay, Depew and Hobart, and Lodge and Hanna, and a lot of ignorant negroes who for ready cash would sell themselves and their prosperity into a worse slavery than their race ever knew."

"The great states of the west, under the leadership of Senator Henry M. Teller, withdrew from the convention. What will our national convention do? Will the east control its action and write its platform? Rest assured that it will exhaust every effort to do so. I would have our national convention declare its purpose fearlessly and explicitly and let those bolt who will. I am tired of following New England or New York. Let imperial Illinois lead the way. Let Illinois be henceforth the Empire state."

After Mr. Bell's speech a recess was taken until 3 o'clock. The convention was on time for the session after the recess, and the committees on credentials, rules and permanent organization made their reports in rapid succession. Charles A. Ladd of Henry county was made permanent chairman and Robert I. Hunt of Macoupin county permanent secretary. Mr. Ladd made a strong speech denouncing the present gold standard.

While waiting for the committee on resolutions the convention listened to Judge Worthington, who urged the adoption of the 16-to-1 silver plank. Then Chairman Ladd introduced Judge E. P. Stubb of Iowa, who addressed the convention. Gov. Altgeld stepped forward to speak as soon as Judge Stubb finished, and the delegates rose to the occasion and gave him welcome. His manner was confident and his voice clear and powerful. His audience was in sympathy with him and the ready response told him that his every point was understood and appreciated. When the governor said that his health and private business would not permit him to accept a nomination for reelection a decidedly vigorous and vociferous "No" stopped him for a minute and it was repeated a second time. A third time he pleaded and a third time the "No" went up. The governor apparently took this as conclusive evidence that he would have to run whether or no and he let the matter end there.

In the course of his speech, speaking of the tariff, the governor said: "The question of a protective tariff has long been an issue in this country. For the first time we took an unequivocal position on it four years ago and we won. The tariff has been revised and the probabilities are that neither political party will make any radical changes in it. It is no longer worth while to discuss the theories of a tariff. The question is now historic. It has been tried and we know exactly what it will do. It has produced exactly the same results in all countries and in all times. It always and in all countries builds up a few at the expense of the many. It protects the proprietor, but not the laborer, for, while it checks the importation of goods, it cannot prevent the importation of cheap labor from all over the earth."

Turning to the great question of the day, our financial policy, Gov. Altgeld said:

Between 1873 and 1880 this country and all of the nations of Europe by law destroyed one-half of the redemption money of the world, and reduced by fully one-half the annual addition to the stock of money of the world. Silver, when used at all, was put on the basis of paper money. The effect of this was to double the work which gold had to do, and by doubling its importance its purchasing power was doubled—it made 200-cent dollars; so that on the average it took twice as much of commodities and of property to get $100 as it formerly did. As the debts, interest, taxes and other fixed charges were not reduced, it took nearly everything which the farmer and producing classes generally could scrape together to meet the fixed charges. They had no money left to purchase the comforts of life. This destroyed the trade of the merchants and soon forced the factories to shut down; there being no market for what the laborer made, he had to go idle, so that the producer, the merchant and the laborer were all in distress.

"In the European countries prostration of industry and trade followed immediately the general demonetization of silver, and there has been a universal paralysis there ever since. In our country there have been some local causes which held us up for a few years. For instance, the balance of trade was greatly in our favor for several years, which largely increased our volume of money, and then our mines yielded abnormally, which also helped to increase the volume of money; but these local causes lasted only a few years, and then the paralysis resulting from the striking down of silver slowly crept over our country and prostrated our people, and there has been no revival since, either here or in Europe. Nature has yielded her harvests with greater abundance than ever, but all in vain. The conditions are getting worse day by day, and there can be no great prosperity in Europe and in this country until the wrong that produced this distress has been righted. As it was done by arbitrary act of government, so it must be undone by act of government."

The report of the committee on delegates-at-large followed the governor and it was adopted at once. Then Champ Clarke of Missouri, a Bland man, was introduced. After him Delegate Perrin of St. Clair county made a lively speech, and when he sat down the chairman said that as the committee on resolutions was still out it was in order to proceed to nominations of state officers. A resolution to this effect was adopted with a roar of approbation and Judge William Prentiss of Evanston in a brilliant speech placed John P. Altgeld in nomination for governor.

As soon as Judge Prentiss had said the words which placed Gov. Altgeld in nomination, a dozen men sprang to the tops of chairs and moved that the nomination be made by acclamation and a rising vote and it was done.

The platform began with the money plank, which was as follows: "We favor the soundest and safest money known to man, and as experience has shown that this consists of both gold and silver, with equal rights of coinage and full legal-tender power, we demand the repeal of that republican and plutocratic legislation which demonetized silver and reduced it to the basis of token money." It continues: "We demand the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver as standard money at the rate of sixteen ounces of silver to one ounce of gold of equal fineness, with full legal-tender power to each metal, without waiting for or depending on any other nation on earth; and the delegates from this convention are instructed to use all honorable means to secure a similar declaration by said national convention and to support only such men for the presidency as are in full and pronounced sympathy with these principles. We are also opposed to the contraction of the currency by the retirement of any part of the outstanding treasury notes."

The tariff plank is as follows: "We favor a tariff for revenue only, and declare that the government should collect no more taxes than are necessary to defray the expenses of the government, honestly and economically administered. We are unalterably opposed to the revival of any such monstrosity in legislation as that act of congress which was known as the McKinley law."

The rest of the platform demands abolition of "government by injunction," denounces federal interference in local affairs, cordially indorses the administration of Gov. Altgeld, and bitterly criticises the platform adopted by the recent republican convention. The revenue system of Illinois is denounced and a change in the constitution demanded. The industrial arbitration law is indorsed, and the so-called "flag law" denounced. The platform also declares against prison labor and demands legislation for the protection of miners. An income tax is also favored. The closing plank is as follows: "The delegates from this convention to the national democratic convention are instructed to support only such men for the presidency as are in full and pronounced sympathy with the declarations of this platform, and the delegates to the national convention are instructed to vote upon all matters, including nominations for candidates, as a unit."

Ex-Congressman Williams made a minority report. He said if the convention was willing to name a man for the Illinois delegation to vote for in Chicago he would swallow the unit rule, but if the delegation was to go uninstructed he thought the privilege of individual action should be allowed. He was ruled out of order; then the platform was adopted with a yell.

FIGHT IN VENEZUELA.

Details of the Skirmish Which Is Worrying Diplomats.

Caracas, June 24.—A paper received from Grenada, W. I., says that on the 13th inst. a Venezuelan force crossed to the British side of the Acarabisi river. As they proceeded on their march to the head waters of the Barima and Barama rivers in the Yuruari or gold territory they interfered with the mining operations of a party of British colonists from Demarara.

The real object of the Venezuelan colonists, it is reported, was to reach the mouth of the Yuruari, thus obtaining a commanding position in their efforts to secure a foothold in the rich gold region of Venezuela or Guiana. To do this it is supposed that they proceeded above the Acarabisi, which crosses the Venezuelan line between the Acarabisi and Amacuro stations.

The government believes these incidents may explain the conflict which was first reported from Trinidad as having taken place at the mouth of the Barima river, near Barima station. The engagement really took place in the heart of the now celebrated Yuruari territory of Guiana, which Lord Salisbury says shall not be submitted to arbitration, as he affirms that it is unquestionably British territory under the cessions of the original Dutch colonists. It is in this territory that gold is found in great abundance. British colonists are alarmed at the idea that Venezuelans should succeed to their mining claims and it is quite probable that the appearance of Venezuelans in that region precipitated the conflict in question.

FIRST DAY AT BOSTON.

Large Attendance at the Sunday School Convention.

Boston, Mass., June 24.—Bright skies greeted the delegates to the opening session of the triennial convention of the International Sunday School association in Tremont Temple Tuesday. Rev. William Randolph of St. Louis presided. He eulogized Sunday school work. Dr. George C. Lorimer next delivered the address of welcome. The Hon. S. H. Blake, Q. C., of Ontario, spoke in response to the welcome and after the election of a nominating committee a recess was taken.

At the afternoon the committee on nominations reported the name of S. B. Capen of Boston as president of the convention, and he was elected by acclamation.

The statistical report showed 142,089 Sunday schools in the United States and British provinces, a gain over 1893 of 10,171; 1,476,369 teachers, a gain of 98,634; 11,556,806 scholars, a gain of 1,239,334—a grand total of 13,033,175 Sunday school workers and a total increase in three years of 1,337,968.

The committee recommended a plan for dividing its work into eight field districts, with permanent agents employed in the work. They also said the field should be extended and embrace all of North America, Central America and the West Indies, especially that we should begin to aid the workers in Mexico and Cuba. The sum of $25,000 per annum is needed for three years in this work.

REVOLT IN PERU SPREADING.

Government Measures for Its Suppression Declared to Be Inadequate.

Panama, Colombia, June 24.—It is stated here upon good authority that the revolt which started at Iquitos, Peru, a few weeks ago continues to gain in strength and adherents, and if the expedition, part of which has left the capital for Loreto, the disturbed province, is not strong enough to crush it—for the revolt is now several thousand—then it is feared that the whole country will soon be in revolt. Seminar, who is at the head of the revolt, will soon be joined by the minister of finance during Caceres' administration.

The government recently opened an extra credit of 200,000 soles in treasury bills for the expedition to suppress the revolution, but that amount was regarded as ridiculously small, it being believed at least 1,000,000 soles would be required.

A FLAG will be raised in school district No. 7, town of Harmony, next Friday.

GOLD WAS ON TOP AT MILWAUKEE

THE FREE SILVER MEN WERE NOT "IN IT."

General Bragg Heads the Lists of Delegates at Large With William F. Vilas Second—The White Metal Men Carry One District—The Convention's Work.

Delegates at Large—Gen. Edward S. Bragg, Fond du Lac; William F. Vilas, Madison; James G. Flanders, Milwaukee; and J. J. Hogan, La Crosse.

Alternates—John J. Suhr, Dane county; Archibald Woodward, Rock county; John W. Hume, Winnebago county; and J. J. McCallum, Richland county.

Milwaukee, June 24.—These were the men selected by the democratic state convention yesterday. The convention was a hot one, but the delegates voted two to one in favor of the majority report of the committee on resolutions, which favors a gold standard. Senator Vilas made a vigorous speech against free silver, in which he eulogized President Cleveland.

The silver men are somewhat crestfallen by their defeat. They held a caucus in the forenoon—sixty-one of them—and figured that they could carry the convention for their cause. The convention also declared for a tariff for revenue only; indorsed the administration of President Cleveland, and commended the "broad and enlightened doctrine of free trade."

Ex-Governor G. W. Peck, chairman of the state central committee, called the assemblage to order. Louis A. Lange of Fond du Lac and J. M. Clancy of Milwaukee were made secretaries.

Thomas F. Frawley of Eau Claire was selected as temporary chairman. After a brief burst of applause had subsided, Mr. Frawley proceeded to deliver a speech on the issues of the day. He said in part:

"While the great issue of previous national contests, the tariff, is preserved and the lines thereto are sharply drawn, still the paramount issue presented is: Shall the democratic party to-day stand where it has stood for upward of a century of its existence, for a stable currency measured by a standard that the enlightened judgment of the commercial nations of the world have established and that experience has approved? Here and there traces of lukewarmness and apostasy may exist, but the democratic party to-day, especially the democracy of Wisconsin, as ever, insists that the honor and integrity of this nation shall be preserved; that its promises made in the hour of the necessities of our great civil war to the pensioned heroes now living or the widows of those dead be kept; that all our obligations, no matter what the occasion or when issued, shall be redeemed; no repudiations, either in the way of debased currency or change of standard shall or will be permitted."

"The credit of our nation, like the immutable principles upon which our government rests, must and shall remain unchanged and unchangeable."

At the conclusion of Mr. Frawley's speech committees on permanent organization and resolutions were appointed. A fight between the gold and silver factions ensued over a motion that all resolutions be referred to the committee without reading. The silver men opposed the motion, but they were outvoted and the convention took a recess until 2:30.

At the afternoon session the temporary organization was made permanent and the convention took up the platform.

The platform presented by the majority of the committee indorses the "wise and patriotic administration of Grover Cleveland," and commends the gain in congress of Senators William F. Vilas and John L. Mitchell, in their faithful adherence to the principles of the democrats of Wisconsin.

On the tariff the platform declares: "We believe that a tariff for revenue only would extend American commerce to the uttermost parts of the earth, and that untrammelled industry would advance our country to the foremost place among the nations. We are therefore firm in our adherence to the doctrine enunciated by the last democratic national convention, that this government should impose no tariff taxes except for revenue."

The financial plank is as follows: "Realizing the logical demand for the best money for international trade; realizing also the dangers of a fiat currency in domestic use, and aware that the present condition of commercial distress calls for the patriotic and sturdy maintenance of national honor and financial integrity, we declare ourselves opposed to the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and in favor of gold, the highest monetary standard of the world." The delegates are instructed to vote as a unit.

The minority report, presented by the silver men on the committee, was as follows: "Resolved, That we reaffirm the action of the democratic national convention of 1892, and particularly upon the subject of coinage, believing that a fair interpretation of the same favors the free and unlimited coinage of both gold and silver as legal tender money of this country."

E. J. Dockery spoke for silver, and General Edward S. Bragg delivered a plea for the gold standard. The vote on the adoption of the minority report resulted: 128 yeas to 217 nays. The majority report was then adopted by the same vote.

The following delegates-at-large were then elected: William F. Vilas, Madison; Edward S. Bragg, Fond du Lac; James G. Flanders, Milwaukee; and J. J. Hogan, La Crosse. Alternates: John J. Suhr, Dane county; Archie Woodward, Rock county; John W. Hume, Winnebago county; J. J. McCallum, Richland county.

After naming members of the state central committee the convention adjourned.

The democratic state committee held a meeting and decided to hold the convention for the nomination of state officers and of presidential electors on Wednesday, September 2.

SILVER IN INDIANA.

But Two Gold Men Will Get on the Chicago Delegation.

Indianapolis, June 24.—The democratic convention meets today. All the thirteen district delegations held preliminary meetings last night, the state house being given up to the stormy sessions. In only one district, the Tenth, were there enough sound money men to carry things. This is Sheerin's district, and because of his fight for sound money he will lose his place on the national committee and Indiana democracy will lose the honor of the secretaryship of that committee, which Sheerin has filled for so many years. With the exception of the Seventh district and the two delegates from the Tenth, the Indiana delegation at Chicago will be uncompromisingly for free silver and similarly colored candidate.

The delegates-at-large will be Editor John Shanklin of Evansville, together with Senators Turpie and Voorhees and Benjamin F. Shively of South Bend. All are for the white metal and will represent Gov. Matthews in the Chicago convention. Shively will also be the nominee for governor, it being conceded that he will have no opposition in the convention.

The rough draft of the platform has been prepared by a committee composed of Senator Turpie, R. C. Bell, Allen W. Clark, and B. F. Shively. The money plank will be short and will declare for the free coinage of silver and gold at a ratio of 16 to 1.

The present money system will be held responsible for the hard times and other ills of which the people have been complaining. The State Liquor League will not succeed in getting the Nicholson temperance law denounced. The last legislature will be condemned and the administration of Gov. Matthews praised. There will be a separate plank indorsing the candidacy of the governor for the nomination for president. There will be a declaration in favor of the election of United States senators by the people, and the senatorial contest in the republican party in this state will be condemned and cited as an argument in favor of election by the people.

TEXAS DEMOCRATS SPLIT.

Gold and Silver Democrats Hold Separate Conventions.

Austin, Tex., June 24.—The two wings of the democratic party met in separate session Tuesday for the purpose of electing delegates to the Chicago convention, and as both factions held separate conventions there was very little friction at either.

The gold standard convention decided to thoroughly organize the democratic party in Texas by electing a new executive committee and further calling of a state convention at Waco on August 25 to nominate a full state ticket from governor down. The platform adopted was strongly laudatory of Cleveland and Carlisle and indorsed the gold standard in the strongest terms.

The silver men in their convention spent the entire day in arranging organization. At night the convention had a big wrangle over the adoption of their platform. There were two reports from the committee on resolutions. The majority report favored silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and the minority, presented by Jonathan Lane, favored an indorsement of Cleveland and Carlisle and a gold standard.

WILL ADOPT A GOLD PLANK.

New York Democrats Hold Their State Convention at Saratoga Today.

Saratoga, N. Y., June 24.—The democratic convention will today declare that the present gold standard in the country should be preserved until such time as there can be obtained an international agreement for bimetalism. At the same time the leaders of the party will postpone the selection of presidential electors until the fall convention of the party. The delegates

MINISTRY BEATEN BY THE PEOPLE

LIBERALS RETURN TO POWER IN CANADA.

Separate School Issue Give Opposition a Decided Majority—Wilfred Laurier to Be the New Premier of the Dominion—The Catholic Vote Was Not For the Conservatives.

Toronto, Ont., June 24.—The most exciting election campaign ever held in Canada closed Tuesday with utter rout of the Tory government. At midnight the returns showed that the liberals have carried the country by nearly forty majority. The vote stands: Liberals, 119; Conservatives, 83; Independents, 10. There are six constituencies to hear from, but it is conceded that the Liberals in the new house will have a clear majority of forty, irrespective of the Independents and Patrons. The Hon. Wilfred Laurier, Liberal leader, was elected for two constituencies, as was also Dalton McCarthy, leader of the Independents, or, as they are sometimes called, the "third party." Five cabinet ministers were defeated and a large number of leading conservatives also lost their seats. On the other hand, all the leading Liberals were elected, David Mills being the only Liberal of any prominence who failed to secure his election.

THE HON. WILFRED LAURIER.

Montreal, Ottawa, Hamilton, and other cities returned Liberal members. Toronto returned two Conservatives, one Liberal and one Independent. This is the first time the Liberals have been in power in Canada since 1878. The Catholic vote upon which the ministry relied utterly failed to go Conservative. In Toronto the fight was a straight one as regards the separate schools issue, and the anti-carried all four seats by large majorities. The Conservatives concede that they have met their Waterloo.

What a great quantity of work a "good housekeeper" finds to do! There are so many little time-and-strength-taking chores that have no names. If a woman is in good health there is no more healthful employment than housework. Generally speaking, there is no happier woman in the world. But how different when every breath is pain, every step torture! This state of health, in nine cases out of ten comes from derangements of the delicate, feminine organs of generation. The family doctor inquires first concerning these. He most usually insists upon an "examination." From this the modest woman naturally shrinks. She is right. Excepting in very unusual cases of "female weakness" examinations are unnecessary. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a simple, natural remedy for these ills. It cures safely, permanently.

SHOOTING STARS.

Across the strings of memory
A zephyr breathes from out the past,
When youth believed the shooting stars
That night atween the heavens cast.
They told him that the soulful wish
He had made, that the soulful wish
Asked, while still glowing the flashing brand,
Were sure to fall—a wondrous gift—
Within faith's supplicating hand.
How many dreams of love and wealth—
How many hopes of fame and power
With boyish trust—so soon outgrown—
Were loaded on each flitting flame!
Say 'twas the credence of the fool,
A farce where folly played chief part—
It had what too much after looks,
The earnest service of the heart.
And so of all those radiant ships
That one time sped o'er seas of air
And piled up high with golden dreams,
Struck Age's rock and foundered there,
Hung in the sanctum of the soul,
Where death can only force the bar,
Alone remains that joy we knew
And lived when dreaming of the star.

ROUTED BY GIRLS.

The Marquise Therese de Lionne, the most adorable old lady in the world, a grandmother, with fluttering little curls and the laughing eyes of a child, has but one fault, and that so grave a one that you would hardly believe it. Dainty and pretty as she is, and grand dame to the tips of her taper fingers, she punctuates her most ordinary conversation with the strangest of oaths. At the slightest provocation, or on no provocation at all, she will come out with "The deuce!" or "The devil!" or even a "Damn!" that shocks every one who hears her. "It's an old habit of mine," she explains, "and I cling to it because it is an old one. And then," she adds, with a gay smile, "it saved me once from the greatest peril a woman can run."

And here is the story as the marquise tells it:

"Old though I am, I am not a very serious person; but, as a little girl—ah, how long ago that was, how long ago!—I was the greatest madcap that ever got out of breath chasing butterflies, or tore her gown and left her hair ribbons on the hawthorn trees, though that did not prevent me—egad! would you believe it, at 14!—from being very much interested even then in the handsome hussar, gold laced, embroidered and be-dazzled, who adorned the front pages of the romances of that day."

"Naturally my friends were hardly less feather-brained than I. You would have to search long to find a dovecot more full of turbulent chatter and laughter and flights of song than the convent of the Sacred Heart, where I took my vows—never to be a nun."

"It was in the evening that we used to play our greatest pranks. We had discovered a way to slip out of the dormitory without waking up the sister who was supposed to guard over us. As soon as she was asleep, we would creep down stairs into the great dark garden, carrying with us tablets of chocolate, a coffee pot, and an alcohol lamp, and, climbing up to a favorite perch high in an old oak tree, we would make chocolate and drink it triumphantly in the darkness."

"In the town where this convent was, there was also a garrison. The walls of our garden were very high, and we never so much as set eyes on a uniform; but walls that prevent seeing, do not prevent hearing. The officers and common soldiers—naturally attracted by the presence of so many girls, I suppose—used to stroll along on the other side of our wall in the evenings, chattering together, and we girls used to listen. We could hear them so well! They would describe what they had done in battle, or what they would do in case there should be a war, and when they got excited, they used to talk in the most blood-thirsty way. It was terrifying to hear them, but so fascinating! And what formidable oaths they used! We could remember a few of them."

"One day, as we were walking together in one of the paths, Eveline de Sabran exclaimed, 'By thunder, girls, this is a devilish fine evening!'"

"It was a revelation! From that time forth, the entire convent, inspired by her example, began to pepper their conversation with oaths that would have done credit to Napoleonic veterans. And we did not content ourselves with the garrison expletives overheard across the wall. We recalled peasant profanity we had heard years before, and hunted through romances to find the oaths of fine gentlemen, roisters, and serving maids. It was not long before we had acquired a special and remarkable erudition in that line."

"As you may imagine, it was not in the classes, before the pious ears of the sisters, that we aired our new accomplishment. In the daytime we swore only before the abbess, who was deaf as a post. But as soon as night came—oh, we did not think of chocolate any more, you may be sure—we met on the lawn under the big oak and had a grand time. 'Deuce take it!' Jane de Seaux would begin. I would follow with 'By thunder, blast your eyes!' and the others would chorus 'Devil fly away with me!' 'Damme, sir!' 'By'r lady!' 'Ten hundred thousand devils!' 'Grape and canister!' 'Thunder and lightning!' 'Confound it!' To see us strutting about with our hands on our hips or twirling imaginary mustaches, with our little voices coming from the bottoms of our boots, you would think we were more terrible than a regiment of dragons."

As she said this, the marquise burst into a peal of merry laughter, and imitating the childish uproar of the precocious blasphemers, the gentle old lady swore delightedly.

"It must have been an amusing scene," we said laughing, "but we don't see the danger it saved you from."

"Devil take you, my dears," she replied, "how impatient you are!" and checking her laughter, she continued her story:

"After the convent comes marriage—after the mother superior, a superior of another kind. M. de Lionne was presented to me—a fine looking army man. I thought immediately of the hussar of romance. He could talk the part well too. And, zounds, why shouldn't I marry him? Thirty-five years of age, but much younger in spirit, of proved courage and unquestioned honor—in fact, how shall I say it—he pleased me very much. Only one thing kept me from saying 'Yes' at once. Novels were already being written at that time. I had read some—far too many—and they had put a lot of absurd ideas into my head. If I were to give myself to a man forever, I must know his intimate thoughts, his past, above all.

"One fine evening, then, between two cups of tea, I said bravely to M. de Lionne:

"Well, yes, I love you. But come, tell me frankly, looking me straight in the eye—it is not very disagreeable to do so, is it?—have you nothing, absolutely nothing, to reproach yourself with—if not as regards men, as regards women?"

"Nothing," he replied, with an ingenuous earnestness that made me wish to throw myself into his arms.

"Then he suddenly blushed. 'I had forgotten one incident,' he said. 'I confess that I have committed, or almost committed, a bad, a very bad, action.'"

"Blushing at first, he had now turned pale. I almost regretted having asked him. But it was too late to curb my curiosity."

"Tell me everything."

"I obey. Twelve years ago I was in garrison at T—. There was talk of war in the air at the time, and this, added to our youth, gave us an audacious, almost a ferocious, gaiety. One evening when we were all tipsy—for we got tipsy in those days, which I hope you will pardon—a subaltern, more tipsy than the others, proposed that we scale the walls of a convent in the neighborhood and frighten the nuns and pupils in their sleep. It was a stupid, an infamous idea! Wine is a bad counselor: not a man there, brave and honorable though they were, slapped the face of the man who had made the wretched proposition. We rushed out of the tavern, found ladders I don't know where, scaled the wall, and ran across the garden like looters in a captured city."

"Oh! I cried."

"You despise me, do you not? You will never be my wife?"

"I have not said that yet. I sincerely hope you did not carry out your horrible project?"

"Chance saved us. As we reached the convent door we heard deep voices in the garden, swearing the strangest oaths. There could be no doubt that rough fellows of some sort—gardeners or peasants come to pay their rent—were near at hand in considerable numbers. Yes, they were countrymen, for under the trees we could see garments that looked like skirts—they must have been long blouses. We began to be less courageous, remorse seized us, and we fled to the ladders; and no one ever knew that we had entered the convent garden. But I have always had a bitter recollection of that night's escapade."

"The dear fellow! I assured him that I thought none the worse of him for it, and, a month later, I was the Marquise de Lionne."

When we had finished laughing—for, it must be confessed, the adventure was amusing—we demanded of the marquise:

"And did your husband never know the truth? Did he never learn that it was you and your schoolmates?"

"Perhaps he guessed it. The night we were married, just as he was about to take me in his arms and kiss me, I suddenly sprang away, crying: 'Damme, sir! Ten thousand devils! By thunder! But he didn't run away that time.'"

Sulphur Baths.

Some of the sulphur baths in Hungary and Bosnia are sights worth going far to see.

At one place, Ildze, near Serajevo, those who thirst for sulphur are shown into small cells just like the cells of a prison. Light streams in faintly from a small skylight, but the bath is not to be discovered until the bather's eyes are accustomed to the semidarkness and he has been in the place some minutes.

Then he becomes aware that there is in one corner of his cell a small flight of steps leading to a rough hewn basin in the very bowels of the earth, so to speak. The sulphurous water gushes up in the basin, and the odor of it is not to be described. Yet people travel hundreds of miles to enjoy it, and the doctors rave about its medicinal qualities.—London Tit-Bits.

The Flight of Geese.

Wild geese conduct their migration in an extremely methodical fashion. The birds form themselves into lines shaped like an old fashioned drag or harrow. Sometimes there are two rows, one behind the other. There are always distinct leaders, but these very soon tire, and by careful watching with a glass one may see the leaders drop back and others take their places. It has been suggested that this arrangement is on the principle of a ticket office window, and that all of the ganders successively take the leadership. When weary, they fall back to the rear and others come up. If the flock is scattered by shot or accident, they may immediately form again.—New York Ledger.

After the Long Arctic Night.

The inhabitants of the little villages in the arctic circle have nearly three months of steady night. It is the annual custom that on the day when the sun rises above the horizon after the long season of darkness the inhabitants all stand in line, facing the returning orb, and greet it with a military salute. No other effect than that of paleness of complexion is discernible in the natives after this long time at night. The pallor soon passes away with the sun's return. In Bodo the sun can be seen at midnight on June 3; in Tromsø it can be seen on May 20; in Hammerfest, or as far as the North cape, the midnight sun may be seen as early as May 13 or 16.—New York Herald.

His Proof.

"As many as eight burglars got into my house last night, and I thought I would come and tell you about it," said young Mr. Fitts. "Did you get a good look at them?" asked the desk sergeant. "Didn't see 'em at all." "How then—how do you know how many there were?" "Because they ate one of my wife's cooking school pies. No seven men are equal to that job."—Indianapolis Journal.

Nobody Safe.

The life insurance agent had been talking steadily for only an hour or so, when the victim, perceiving a chance to get a word in edgeways, remarked: "Do you know you remind me of sudden death?" "How so?" "Nobody is safe from either of you."—Texas Sifter.

Always So.

There was a king of Wall street once—He started with a dime; He always meant to write a book, But didn't have the time. The man who interviewed this king—The ways of fate are funny—Had always meant to speculate But didn't have the money. —Washington Capital.

A TRIFLE OMINOUS.

"Are you superstitious, my dear?" asked Miss Flirty of a newly-arrived stranger in Dallas, to whom she had become engaged.
"Not a bit. But why do you ask?" inquired the young man.
"Nothing, except you are the 13th young man to whom I have been engaged."—Texas Sifter.

A Woman's Argument.

A woman will run from a mouse, Yet a burglar drive out of the house. The reason for this seems obscure, But she argues it thus I am sure: "The mouse is a beast and might rend her, But all men are bound to defend her." —Town Topics.

Wonderful Man.

Justice Wells was in the habit of interrupting counsel. A lawyer who was thus annoyed one day said to him: "Your lordship is even a greater man than your father. The chief baron used to understand me when I had done, but your lordship understands me before I begin."—Tit-Bits.

Well Calculated Success.

Last fall and winter we purchased summer goods to be sold for the present season with an idea of having the best hot weather shoe trade we had experienced for some years. We bought shoes with a great deal of study and care as to styles and quality. We knew we would have a tremendous run on summer goods after becoming acquainted with the fact that we had the largest assortment and best styles to be found in this part of the country and we have not been disappointed in the least. Many new customers have found their way to us and from what we can hear they come again. Our motto, "If it is new we are sure to have it," is a good one, and it's as true as it is good. A. SILVER MEN FROZEN BY THE GOLD BUGS

ROCK COUNTY BOLTERS WERE "NOT IN IT."

The Milwaukee Convention Sat Down On Babbitt & Company—George M. McKee Is the Delegate From This District—A Woodward of Clinton Delegate At Large.

HERE was a heavy frost in Milwaukee yesterday, and several Rock County people felt it. Among them were Clinton Babbitt, Clay W. Mettler, and others who have pinned their faith to the doctrine of free silver. The frost was only felt at the state democratic convention, and at the breweries, the ice machines were not stopped.

But it was a hard frost, and the victims feel its chilling bite. It had been predicted by prophets, so that those who were frozen had no one to blame but themselves. The gold men got the plums, but all the silver men got was gag rule, and the freeze. The First District caucus refused to recognize those who were inclined to carry on a contest in favor of the silver contingent as it was agreed the contestants did not have ground to stand on, so nothing came of the threatened fight of the silver bolters. However, the silver men held a love feast of their own, in which the Rock county men joined. A resolution to name four candidates for delegates at large was adopted with cheers. The four men named were W. C. Silverthorn of Marathon county, Clinton Babbitt, of Rock county, Gabe Bouck of Winnebago county and Judge James A. Mallory of Milwaukee county.

The gold men triumphed. The delegates-at-large are: Gen. Edward S. Bragg, William F. Vilas, James G. Flanders and J. J. Hogan. Archibald Woodward, of Clinton, was chosen as Alternate-at-large, and George M. McKee, of this city, was elected as a delegate from the First congressional district. Dr. J. B. Whiting was a member of the committee on credentials. The Janesville men who occu-

RIFLE BALLS WHIZ IN THE THIRD WARD

GEORGE HANTHORN DODGES A SAUCY BIT OF LEAD.

Shots From the Light Infantry Range Make Third Ward People Appreciative Over Their Bodily Welfare—New Pest House Hit By Several Bullets.

A modest man is George Hanthorn. When a wad of lead shaped like a young hop-toad dropped at his feet and another lump whistled past his head and plunked into the clap boards on his house, he blushed.

"No boquets, please," he said, and examined the first bit of lead curiously.

It was a 45-calibre bullet from an army rifle, but had been flattened and split by striking a stone.

Mr. Hanthorn lives a quarter of a mile from the Light Infantry range on the Paul farm, and a big hill is in the way. Nevertheless, the ball had found a way over. It had struck a stone on the face of the hill and glanced high into the air.

Mr. Hanthorn is not the only man to hear rifle bullets sing. Ed. Smith, living a little nearer the range, had a hole shot in his rain water barrel, and several bullets are said to have lodged in the pest house. It was supposed the high bank against which the firing is directed would stop all bullets but they seem to have a way of jumping over the top.

Mrs. W. T. Sherer's Friends Were Charmingly Entertained This Afternoon

A large company of ladies enjoyed Mrs. W. T. Sherer's hospitality this afternoon. The affair was a brilliant one. The house was beautifully decorated, American Beauty roses covering the tables, and their rich color being emphasized by touches of white and gold here and there.

From the hallway came soft strains of music, Smith's orchestra being stationed overhead. Refreshments were served at small tables, the menu being as dainty as the decorations.

HINBERT WILKES WON THE RACE

The Good Janesville Pacer Surprised Oshkosh People Yesterday.

Hinbert Wilkes, the good pacer owned by Soverhill & Porter, and developed and campaigned by James Scott, won the 2:16 class pacing race at Oshkosh yesterday, and cut his record to 2:15. His victory was a great surprise, as Emma Wilkes was the favorite. Scott "laid up" the first heat, which Hal Orago won in 2:17½, and then went on and won the race in 2:15½, 2:15 and 2:17½.

Badge, the pacer that Janesville people have seen on several occasions, won the 2:09 class purse at Red Oak, Iowa, yesterday, beating Afrite, Judge Hart, Ella T., and Joe He. The best time was 2:07½, which is now Badge's record.

DOE'S MILITIA BILL STRONGLY FAVORED

MILWAUKEE JOURNAL URGES ITS PASSAGE.

Would Put the National Guard of the United States On a Better Basis, and Provides For the Instant Response of 200,000 Troops.

The Milwaukee Journal endorses General Doe's "militia bill" in the following editorial:

"A bill has been prepared by Assistant Secretary of War Gen. J. B. Doe, at one time adjutant general of this state and now probably the best authority in the country on all matters concerning the militia organizations, providing for the organization of the entire militia of the country on a basis similar to that of this state. It is a general law combining all the necessary provisions for the militia in service as well as in training. This act is under the clause of the constitution giving congress power 'to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the union, suppress rebellion and repel invasion; for organizing, arming and disciplining the militia and governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States, reserving to the states respectively the appointment of the officers and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by congress.' Must Stay in the United States.

"It will be noticed that these forces as militia cannot be ordered outside of the territory of the United States for the purpose of invasion. This limitation caused much annoyance under the regulations existing during the war of 1812. But when the militia musters into the service of the United States as volunteers, it becomes a part of the army and goes where it is ordered. Doe is to get all the laws concerning the militia into working shape, and make the organization fit to fulfill all the conditions of this section of the constitution. His bill provides that all able-bodied men, between the ages of 18 and 45, shall constitute the militia, that these shall be divided into two classes, known as the organized and the reserve militia, the organized shall be enlisted for three years, but if their term of service shall expire while in the service of the United States it shall be extended till the expiration of the time for which they were called out not to exceed ninety days.

Subject to Articles of War.

The bill further provides that when the militia are called into service of the general government they shall be deemed from the time of their acceptance by the president in the service in the United States, subject to the articles of war and liable to service anywhere, within or without the national boundaries. They can be summoned for a term not to exceed nine months. The provision that the state can appoint the officers was construed to apply to the regimental organization and all officers above the rank of colonel were appointed by the president during the civil war. After going into the service of the general government, the appointment will be made under the army regulations.

Wants the Bill Passed.

This bill aims to secure a thorough organization and drill of the militia similar to that in this state, and will put about 200,000 men in a condition of instant service for nine months if needed. It requires them to go into camps of instruction and to have drill in serving heavy artillery. It also provides that any state may purchase, on the approval of the secretary of the war, any supplies or equipment such as furnished to the army for the use of the organized militia. The bill is most complete, covering all the conditions necessary to make the organized militia ready for service, and effective. It is in the line of national safety, and should be passed at once."

NEW SWINDLE BEING WORKED

Two Book Agents Play the Cards Together Very Successfully

A new swindling scheme is being worked in some parts of the country. A woman book agent appears in a town and goes from house to house, leaving books for examination. Next day a man calls to see if the books are wanted and if they are not, takes them away. Usually they are not wanted. A few days later the woman agent appears again, and on being told that the man has taken the books away, weeps copiously and says the villain has been collecting her books all over the town, pleads poverty and on account of meek condition, accepts proffered compensation.

REYNOLD'S CIRCUS IN TROUBLE

Rockford Policemen Has a Bill of Sale of the Outfit.

The Janesville musicians who are out with Reynolds' circus may come home before the season is over. Rockford parties interested had heard nothing from the outfit for several days and decided that Officer Little be sent to Iowa after the circus. The officer carries with him a bill of sale for the outfit. Rockford people regret that the circus is in hard luck. The Reynolds show has had so many years of misfortune that it seems time it struck rich. Fortune is apparently against it.

BALLOTS COME IN
AS THICK AS HAILTHE C. E. CONTEST IS GROW-ING WARM.

Several Candidates Are in the Field, and All Are Making an Excellent Showing—The Conditions Under Which the Canvassers Are at Work.

BALLOTS are coming in thick and fast in the competition for The Gazette's prize trip to Washington. The polls opened on June 1, and since then, the rivalry has been strong. Somebody will go to Washington as the Gazette's guest next month. Who it is to be the vote will determine.

June 1 the polls opened for the Christian Endeavor convention ballots. Somebody will go to Washington as The Gazette's guest next month.

Who it is to be the vote will determine.

It was intended at first to have no voting except by coupons clipped from the paper. The premium allowed for new subscribers in the piano contest two years ago, was a source of complaint, so many blocks of votes being transferred from one candidate to another at the last moment. Consultation with members of the three local Christian Endeavor societies, however, resulted in a change of plan. It was urged by all the young people interviewed that allowance be made for new subscribers as well as for coupons. Their arguments decided the matter but it was determined that no voters should be transferred after being once recorded. The conditions of the vote will be as follows:

Any one, anywhere in any state is entitled to vote.

Cut out the coupon (trimming on the dotted lines). Write in the name of your candidate, and send to Ballot Editor, Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

Only one person can be voted for on one ballot.

None but members of the Janesville Christian Endeavor societies are eligible as candidates. The winner will have railroad and Pullman fare paid from Janesville to Washington and will have hotel expenses paid throughout the convention.

Votes may be sent in at any time. The polls close July 1 at 9 o'clock p. m.

The votes allowed on new subscriptions paid in advance will be:

New subscriber paid in advance one month, 100 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance two months, 250 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance six months, 900 votes.

New subscriber paid in advance one year, 2,000 votes.

New subscriber to Weekly Gazette, paid for one year, $1.50; four hundred votes.

Each new subscriber who pays in advance and casts the number of votes specified is entitled, of course, to cut coupons from the paper from day to day, and vote in the regular manner.

No person shall be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address. In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers. No person will be allowed to stop his paper on Monday, start it again Tuesday and claim the premium.

CRITICISE FATHER M'MAHON.

Rockford Friends of Conductor Neal Are Much Stirred Up.

The Rockford papers are criticising Rev. Father McMahon of that city, who was to officiate at the funeral of William Neal, the well known conductor, who was drowned near Rockford. They say that for some reason unknown to the majority of the people who were at the funeral, Rev. Father McMahon, who was so officiate, did not appear. The friends and relatives were exceedingly incensed at his action, and can see no ample explanation.

The people who were in the church are very indignant over the matter, and the relatives of Mr. Neal are greatly shocked at what they term the priest's neglect of the holy duties of his office. That Mr. Neal was a prominent and faithful member of the church makes the affair more astonishing and it will take long to quiet the excitement of the members of the parish over the happening.

Friends of the priest claim that he received a death call and that it is a strict rule of the Catholic church that such calls must be given attention in preference to everything. They also state that Rev. Father McMahon when he reached the church and saw the funeral cortege asked that the remains be brought back. They say further that he would have gone to the cemetery had he not been informed that Rev. Father Fieberty had been sent for.

On the other hand friends of the deceased assert that the priest had gone on a sick call which he had deferred from Saturday, and that the time for the funeral had been changed twice at his personal request. It is said that the matter will be brought to the attention of the bishop of the diocese.

WOODMEN ENTERTAIN COMPANY

The Footville Camp Visits Janesville Neighbors Last Night.

Florence Camp, Modern Woodmen of America, entertained a delegation of neighbors from Footville last evening. The team of Foresters from that village initiated three new members and showed a remarkable degree of perfection in their work. After the initiation ice cream and cake were served, and a short musical program was presented. The dance given the night of the picnic netted $126.11, and the total amount that the camp will have to pay above the subscription, was given as $175. The Footville team of Foresters was composed of Neighbors Bert Silverthorn, Frank Hatton, George Hatton, N. C. Root, Norman Curry and Charles McDonald, and Dr. Lacey, John Davis, Mathias John and O. R. Shaw came with them. The following letter to Chairman Elser, of the Woodmen picnic, was read by Clerk Ashcraft:

OFFICE OF SILVER LEAF CAMP NO. 60, M. W. A., ELGIN, ILL., JUNE 13, 1896—C. H. ELDER, JANESVILLE, WIS.:—ESTEEMED NEIGHBOR: Yours of the 12th, enclosing draft for thirty dollars for prizes given for the best band in the parade at the picnic, is at hand, and I return thanks for same in behalf of Silver Leaf Camp No. 60. I will add that the action of your committee in awarding the prize, was a surprise to our people. We attended the picnic for the purpose of having a good time, and to contribute our show towards making it a success, and did not intend to compete for any prizes. We believe, however, that your judgment in the matter was in accordance with the unanimous sentiment of the vast crowd that were present. I must also congratulate you on the picnic. It was undoubtedly the best one we have had, and the Janesville Woodmen will ever have a warm place in my affections. Fraternally yours, GEORGE ROBINSON, Clerk No. 60.

TOBACCO GROWERS ARE PLEASED

The Outlook for a Superior Crop Was Never Better.

Tobacco growers of the west are delighted with the prospects the present season has brought them towards the raising of a good crop again. The great bulk of the crop stands well started in the fields by the middle of June, when the average planting season has only just begun. Besides, there was seldom or ever a better stand in the field nor the plants so large and thrifty when transplanted. Timely rains have fallen at just about the right distance apart to bring about the condition most desired during the work of planting. A good many of the early set fields have been worked out once or twice and the young plants with scarcely a missing hill are of uniform size and well started in their growth. Altogether the Edgerton Reporter says the outlook is a splendid one so far—the old-timers say they never saw a better one. There never was a time either when a No. 1 crop would be more acceptable to the farmers.

WISCONSIN FOR GOLD.

Silver Democrats Overthrown in the State Convention at Milwaukee.

at-large to be selected--Roswell P. Flower, David B. Hill, Edward Murphy and Frederick R. Coudert--are to be given a gold standard plank to stand upon at Chicago, as representing the sentiment of the state. There is a strong undercurrent among the delegates here for silver, and it is this more than anything else that has led to the delaying of the selection of electors. The platform will be very brief, no state issues being touched upon.

SILVER DEMOCRATS IN CONTROL.

Gold Men Making Only a Formal Fight in Ohio.

Columbus, Ohio, June 25.--The silver men scored victories in all the preliminary contests yesterday. There is a movement on foot to force the adoption of the unit rule, and compel the gold men to vote with the majority at Chicago. This proposition will be resisted with all the force at sound money's command, and the gold men insist that they will not regard such a resolution as binding.

While the instructions on free silver will be iron clad, there will be no instructions for president. General A. J. Warner, president of the American Bimetallic League, is here taking an active part in the interest of the fusion of all silver interests. The silver slate includes John R. McLean, John W. Bookwalter, Allen W. Thurman, and L. L. Holden for delegates-at-large.

The preliminary meetings last night showed that the silver men have almost 600 of the 675 delegates in the convention which meets tomorrow. At the district meetings the silver men carried seventeen of the congressional districts and the gold men four. The delegation to Chicago, when the delegates are all chosen, will probably stand 38 to 8 for free silver, although the silver men claim 40 to 6. The silver men intend to instruct the Ohio delegation for free coinage and to vote as a unit, so that the four gold districts, which include the cities of Dayton, Hamilton, Toledo and Cleveland, will be shut out. The platform is to be reported to the full committee at 9:30 today, and then to the convention.

Peffer Says Silver Will Not Win.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 24.--Coxey of tramp army fame has received a letter from Senator Peffer of Kansas on the presidential outlook. Peffer thinks that the silver men will not win this year, that there will be no fusion, and that McKinley will be elected.

Heroes.
